Number of hours, etc., of each work of the piece-workers in the Government Press

7. Mr. E. P. Varghese: Will the Government be pleased to state whether there is any rule requiring the pieceworkers of the Government Press to be allowed to note on the proof files the number of hours etc., of each work and that their signatures should be obtained in the account books at the end of the month?

Rao Bahadur Rajyasevanirata Dr. N. Kunjan Pialli: In regard to line account vouchers and standing altered vouchers the proofs are signed by the compositors also while the author's correction vouchers are valued on the merits of the work by the Assistant Superintendent or Chief Foreman alone as per Government orders. The signature of the Compositors are obtained in the acquittance rolls when payments are made to them.
